INTRODUCTION TO ACE CELLS LAB

ACE Cells Lab Limited is a cutting-edge biomedical company specializing in advanced regenerative medicine and biomolecular solutions. Established in 2017, the company has become a leader in innovative, science-backed skincare and pharmaceutical products. With a global presence that includes branches in Estonia, Egypt, Turkey, Hungary, and ongoing projects like the British Center for Regenerative Medicine, ACE Cells Lab Limited is at the forefront of groundbreaking research in stem cell engineering and biomolecular treatments.

THE ACE APPROACH

Our approach is centered on creating non-chemical-based therapeutic solutions that harness the body's natural healing processes. With a strong foundation in biomolecular medicine, we have developed a range of specialized products, all rooted in our pioneering Pico protocol—designed to re-engineer cells without the use of chemicals. We are also proud to hold several patents, including one for blood group-specific polyclonal antibodies aimed at treating cancer.

THE ADVANTAGES OF ACE PICO PROTOCOL

At the core of ACE Cells Lab Limited's innovation is the ACE Pico Protocol, a revolutionary approach to cellular regeneration and repair. Unlike traditional methods that rely on harsh chemicals or external agents, the Pico Protocol utilizes advanced, naturally derived methodologies to guide and enhance the body's natural regenerative capabilities.

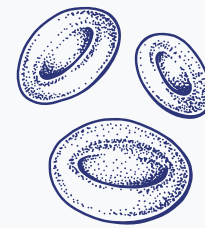

KEY ADVANTAGES OF THE ACE PICO PROTOCOL

CHEMICAL-FREE CELL ENGINEERING:

The Pico Protocol achieves cellular re-engineering without the use of chemicals, making it a safer and more sustainable approach to regenerative medicine. This eliminates the risk of toxicity or adverse reactions often associated with chemical-based treatments.

TARGETED STEM CELL ACTIVATION:

The protocol is designed to precisely target and activate the body's own stem cells, stimulating their natural healing and regenerative processes. This leads to faster recovery and enhanced tissue repair, especially in skincare and organ health applications.

PERSONALIZED MEDICINE:

The Pico Protocol can be customized to meet the individual needs of patients based on their unique biological makeup. This personalized approach ensures that treatments are more effective, particularly in cases of age-related degeneration, chronic conditions, and immune system disorders.

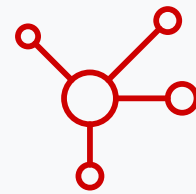

NON-INVASIVE AND SAFE:

The protocol offers non-invasive alternatives to traditional therapies, making it accessible to a wider range of patients. By avoiding invasive procedures, recovery times are reduced, and the risks associated with surgical interventions are minimized.

By leveraging the ACE Pico Protocol, our products are able to deliver unparalleled results, offering advanced solutions for skincare, muscle and joint health, women's and men's health, and much more. We aim to redefine the future of regenerative medicine through sustainable, effective, and scientifically validated innovations.

BROAD APPLICATION:

The Pico Protocol has wide-ranging applications in both skincare and medical fields. It is used in regenerative therapies for skin rejuvenation, anti-aging, wound healing, and even for more complex conditions like cardiovascular and neurological disorders.

PROMOTES NATURAL HEALING

One of the most profound advantages of the Pico Protocol is its ability to promote the body's natural healing processes. Instead of introducing foreign substances, it encourages the body to regenerate and repair itself, providing long-lasting and sustainable results.

PIONEERING RESEARCH:

ACE Cells Lab Limited continues to invest in ongoing research to expand the applications of the Pico Protocol. The company's commitment to innovation ensures that it remains at the forefront of biomolecular and regenerative medicine.

By leveraging the ACE Pico Protocol, our products are able to deliver unparalleled results, offering advanced solutions for skincare, muscle and joint health, women's and men's health, and much more. We aim to redefine the future of regenerative medicine through sustainable, effective, and scientifically validated innovations.

ACE CELLS LAB PRODUCTS

We proudly serve four main product divisions, each meticulously designed to target specific health and wellness needs.

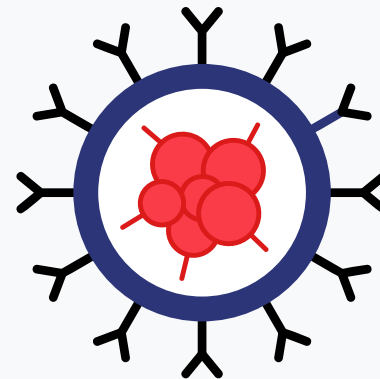

1

FOOD SUPPLEMENTS DERIVED FROM STEM CELLS

Our food supplements are formulated from the most potent embryonic progenitor stem cells, which are organ-specific to support rejuvenation of various body systems. These supplements work by aiding in the regeneration of damaged cells, promoting tissue repair, and restoring overall body function. They are particularly effective in addressing chronic and degenerative diseases, where the natural regenerative capacity of the body has declined, offering a pathway to renewed health and vitality.

2

BLOOD GROUP-SPECIFIC POLYCLONAL ANTIBODIES FOR CANCER THERAPY:

One of our groundbreaking innovations is the development of blood group-specific polyclonal antibodies, designed to target various types of cancer. These antibodies are tailored to the unique antigenic profile of a patient's blood group, enhancing the precision and effectiveness of cancer treatment. By leveraging this technology, we are opening new frontiers in cancer care, offering hope to patients with complex, resistant forms of the disease.

B2B LINE - PURIFIED STEM CELL EXTRACTS FOR LABS AND FACTORIES:

For our business-to-business partners, we provide the finest and most purified extracts of stem cells. These extracts, derived through our proprietary techniques, are essential for research and manufacturing in regenerative medicine, biopharmaceuticals, and other cutting-edge medical industries. Our commitment to purity and potency ensures that our partners receive the highest quality materials for their applications.

SKINCARE PRODUCTS:

Our skincare line is divided into two key categories:

Human and Sheep Placenta-Based:

These products harness the incredible reparative properties of placenta extracts, known for their ability to accelerate skin regeneration and repair. Rich in growth factors, amino acids, and peptides, these formulations stimulate cell turnover, reduce the signs of aging, and promote the healing of damaged skin. Whether derived from human or sheep placenta, these products are a breakthrough in skincare, offering solutions for everything from fine lines to deep tissue repair.

Chinese Herb-Based Skincare:

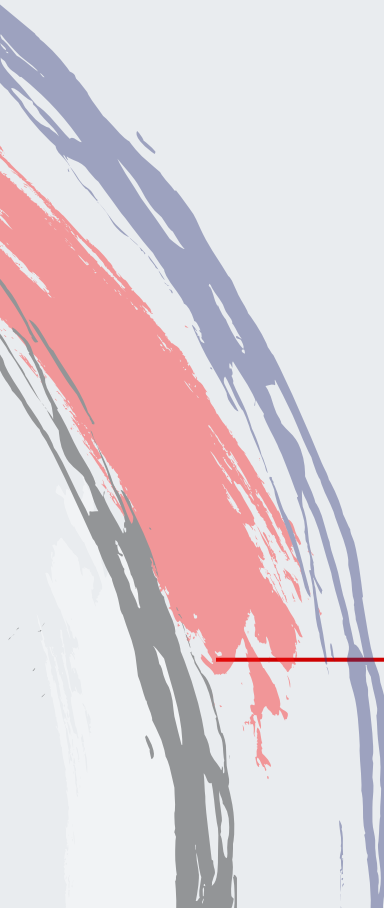

Drawing on centuries of wisdom from traditional Chinese medicine, these products use herbal ingredients to nourish the skin, balance its natural pH, and promote holistic skin health. These formulas are ideal for maintaining youthful, radiant skin while addressing common dermatological issues.

AT ACE CELLS LAB, OUR MISSION IS CLEAR: TO OFFER INNOVATIVE, SCIENTIFICALLY ADVANCED PRODUCTS THAT CONTRIBUTE TO THE TREATMENT OF CHRONIC AND HOPELESS DISEASES, WHILE ALSO PROMOTING REJUVENATION AND REPAIR.
